PROSPECTUS.

The Exhibition, which it has been decided to hold in Wolverhampton in the summer of 1902, will be the most important ever held in England since the great Jubilee Exhibition held in Manchester in 1887.

The undertaking has already met with most hearty and widespread support from all classes. The Corporations of Wolverhampton and other important Municipalities have given the undertaking their support, and the civic heads have become Vice-Presidents of the Exhibition.

The Guarantee Fund now amounts to £28,000.

The site of the Exhibition, which extends to over thirty acres, is part of the beautiful West End Park of Wolverhampton, which has been granted by the Corporation, as well as the adjoining grounds, which have been most generously lent by Lord Barnard.

Wolverhampton, which takes its name from Wulfruna, the sister of Ethelred, is the centre of a thriving and populous district, in which a large variety of trades is carried on. It is within about twelve miles of the City of Birmingham, whilst Walsall, Bilston, Willenhall, Wednesbury, Dudley, West Bromwich, and a number of other important towns are within half an hour's journey. The population within fourteen miles radius is fully one and a half millions, whilst Crewe, Manchester, Liverpool, and the great centres of industry in Wales are within easy access.

The London and North-Western, the Great Western, and the Midland Railway Stations are all within one mile of the Exhibition, which will be connected with them by a constant tramway service.

The scope of the Exhibition is a wide one, and will include a full illustration of the Engineering Industries and Industrial and Scientific Products of the British Empire and of Foreign Countries, special attention being given to the development of Electricity and of Means of Transport and Locomotion, for the display of which accommodation will be provided.

Provision will be made for the entertainment and healthy enjoyment of visitors. Instrumental and vocal music, illuminations, displays, sports and recreations of many kinds will be arranged, while restaurants and tea and other refreshment rooms will be liberally provided in the grounds.

It is requested that all communications in regard to the Exhibition be addressed to the Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.

And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with the notices published.
